Footnotes

STORM OSIDY broke alertly while pushed in a bit, brushed foe, set or forced the pace closest to the inside, kicked clear upper stretch, kept to task. C. MCHALE bumped, in tight at the start, raced well back for six furlongs, came four wide into the straight, rallied willingly to be slowly getting to the winner late. BAND OF LOVE within striking distance while off the inside, loomed a threat three wide through the second turn, failed to sustain that effort in the drive, caught late for the place. GRAND COURT settled off the pace, saved ground, lacked a winning response in the drive. BLANCO BILLY four wide through the first turn when off the pace, turned in an even effort. LEESBORO in tight at the start, trailed for almost six furlongs, traffic, steered out to be five wide turning for home, came up empty. LE PRINCE forwardly placed early on the outside, four wide through the second turn, tired. KAYHILL'SDELTA never a threat. ROY LEE broke in, dueled outside the winner for five furlongs and began to give way, continued to retreat through the stretch.
